PREFACE

1255295

That those now living may properly orient themselves to history, and gain confidence for the future.

We began this book to provide our immediate family with the records that became available to us. For this reason we ask the reader not to be too critical that the work seems to center about us.

Author - Gift

No attempt has been made to verify the information contained herein, although only records thought to be reliable have been copied.

The book is prepared in loose leaf form, to allow for insertion of additional material as it may later become available. For the same reason, some page numbers are omitted.

The descendants' charts are keyed to the ancestral charts on Page 10. For example: A-8 designates Chart "A", Person 8, which is Julius Elizer Barnes. On Chart "A" it will be noticed that following Julius Elizer Barnes is an encircled Capital D. This denoted that his parents are listed on Chart "D". The parents of John Crays are not now known (A-14), therefore there is no encircled letter following his name. The numbers within  $\frac{1}{4}$ " squares denote the number of generations ascending from the first name on Chart "A", "B" or "C".

Information which is received too late to include in the main body of information, is included as supplementary information, Page 30 following.

If the reader should discover erroneous information, or can add information, the author would appreciate receiving the corrections or additions. The corrections will be made on supplementary pages.

Permission to copy this work for family records is unrestricted. All other use is strictly forbidden.

The name Barnes first appeared in England in 1066. It was about this time that William the Conqueror assigned the name to an aid named Bjorne, a Norseman, who came with him from Normandy. The Barnes family has been prominent in English history. Many were buried in Westminster Abbey alongside the kings of England. Since few in the family of Barnes have kept family records, it is difficult to trace our ancestors in history.

At least three Thomas Barnes and one John Barnes, came to the New England Colonies in the early 1600's. It appears that our branch of the family is descended from Thomas Barnes of Hartford, who came to this country a few years after the Mayflower, probably from Surrey, Middlesex, or Norfolk County, England. He settled in what is now the center of Hartford Connecticut.

The Barnes Family is especially prominent in Connecticut History. One was a prominent Presbyterian Minister. He had much to do in causing guarantees of religious freedom to be included in the Connecticut Constitution. These guarantees were later included in the United States Constitution. The occupations most noted among Barneses are: Farmer, Manufacturer, Engineer, Minister, Carpenter, and Insurance Executive.

For more information see: "The Barnes Family Year Book" by Trescott C. Barnes, Riverton Conn. Vol. II pub. 1908 Lib. Con. CS71 B 28 1907.

Julius Elizer Barnes, 6th generation from Thomas Barnes of Hartford, born 6,28,1823, in New York. Was a frontiersman and "Indian fighter". He was also known as a friend of the Indians. The census reports show that he was in Ohio in 1845, and in Richmond Illinois in 1850. On Feb. 19, 1858 He married(2nd) Sylvina Harriet Vought. (His first wife, Silvia, had passed away leaving three small children.) They moved to Wilton Minn. in 1862, to Kansas in 1876, to Wilcox Neb. in 1891, to Woodruff Kansas in 1892, where they were converted. In 1894 their house burned, destroying their records and possessions. They were at a school entertainment at the time. In 1896 they moved to Scranton Pa.. They returned to Woodruff Kansas in Oct. 1898, where he died Dec. 8, 1898. Sylvina was of Dutch descent. This may have been "Pensylvania Dutch". She passed away in Woodruff Kansas, Feb. 14, 1922 and was buried in the Woodruff Cemetery. To them were born 14 children. Eleven were living at Julius death.

Enos Henry Barnes was born September 30, 1864 at Waseca Minnisota. At the age of twelve he moved with his parents to Woodruff, Phillips County, Kansas, where Dec. 25, 1887, he married Nellie Jane Fee, the daughter of an Evangelical minister, Thomas J. Fee and his wife Matilda (Joyce) Fee. To them were born six children. Four are still living in 1963. This union was broken by the death of his Wife, Nellie, on Jan. 7, 1903. In 1908, with his family, he moved to Otis, Washington Co. Colorado, and took a homestead. On Nov. 28, 1916 he married Mrs. Mary Ferree. They moved to Jane Missouri in 1927, and to Enid Oklahoma in 1933, where he died Oct. 30, 1936.

Enos H. Barnes was a farmer and a Carpenter. His three sons were also farmers. Jessie Earl Barnes died while a young man, leaving a wife Nora, and a son Ernest. His wife passed away a few years later. The other two sons, Thomas P. Barnes, and Elmer H. Barnes, also followed the carpenter trade. Thomas became a general contractor. They both live in Los Angeles.

The Barnes Family has been blessed of God with a high birth rate, and a low mortality rate. By conservative estimate, there are now at least 100,000 living descendants of the first Thomas Barnes who settled in Hartford, Connecticut.

It should be noted that of the three brothers of Julius E. Barnes, mentioned earlier, two were killed at Vicksburg, and one crippled. This writer does not know which were killed, or if they left descendants. Their names were: Charles, Walter, and Enos.

Elmer Henry Barnes (the father of the writer) was born Oct. 5, 1888, in Woodruff Kansas. About 1908 he took a homestead near Burdett, Colorado (Otis Colo.). While there, June 14, 1916, he married Miss Maude Lair, the daughter of Thomas Lair and Lydia Angelina (Crays) Lair. Elmer was superentendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School at Burdett, and the first treasurer of the Lone Star School District, near Otis Colo.. He was also a member of the Washington County High School Board. He helped to make Lone Star a model consolidated rural school. Although in favor of a consolidated rural school to raise educational standards, he opposed the more centralized school, and favored local control.

In 1926 Elmer and Maude Barnes and their three children moved to Rogers Arkansas for about a year. The next year they lived in the town of Checotah, Oklahoma. In 1928 they moved to Mountainburg, Ark. where they lived until the fall of 1935. Walter was born June 29, 1934, at Mountainburg. In 1935 they moved to Enid Oklahoma, and in June of 1937 they arrived in Los Angeles, California. Elmer made his living as a carpenter, until he retired. Elmer and Maude became active in the Vermont Avenue Presbyterian Church. They reside at their home at 1252 W. 109 St., Los Angeles, 44, Calif.

Searching the records of the Library of Congress, I found what I believe is the record of the only Lair family to migrate to the United States, the only record in the Library of Congress. "Lair a Huguenot Family, from near Lyons France, 1752, Landed in New York & Settled in New Jersey" by Alice L. Priest, 16 Brewster Terrace, Brookline Mass, Mar 20, 1937. Lib. Cong. CS 71 L 185 1937. There is no certainty that this is the same line as ours, although it probably is.

Lair (perhaps John) b. abt. 1700 in France, m. abt 1740 in Lyons France, Mary _____. He died abt 1740 in France. Mary died 1757 in New Jersey.

In 1752, Mary Lair fled Lyons France to escape Roman persecution, and came to the United States, with her four sons, William, Garret, and two daughters (sons probably should read children). Due to the difficulty of providing for the fatherless children, William lived with a German named Casper Bear from age 5 to 21.

Willian Lair Sr. was born near Lyons France in 1750, was father of 9 children by first wife and 2 by the second. They were: Mary, b 1776, d. 1836. John b. 1779 m. Sarah Dills (3 children) d. 1854. Wm. Jr. b. 1782 m. Charlotte Heat (1 dau) m. 2nd. Elizabeth Rittenhouse (11 children), Ann b. 1784 m. Ambrose Bonham (11 child), Garret b. 1790 m. Hester Rittenhouse (9 child), Rebecca b. 1795 m. Pearson Robeson (9 child), Joseph b. 1798 m. Elizabeth Wirt (4 child), Sarah b. 1802 m. ____ (no child), David b. 1809. m. ___, Amy b. _____. Garret Sr. also fathered several Children.

The following is from our family records as prepared by Carl Carter and others.

Samuel Lair Sr. is supposed to have come from Germany (however: Samuel Lair(III) claimed to have been of French descent) and settled in Tennessee. Not much is known of this family except that there was at least one son Sam. (The above information is from memory, the family Bible having been destroyed in a fire. Could the name be in error?)

Samuel Lair (Jr), raised in Tennasee, married Ellen Welsh in Tennasee and moved to Macoupin Co. Illinois. (Ellen was born about 1794 and died about 1882) There were six children: Charles, Austin, James, Mary, Susan, and Bettie.

James Lair, b. Oct. 27, 1823 m. abt. 1843 Ellen Dixon d. 1905. James married Ellen Dixon, a girl about 18, who had recently come from the southern part of Scotland. (She had a cousin who in 1900 lived in Delbeatti Scotland, whose sister is of "Castle Douglas Scotland".) James Lair was a school teacher and a Farmer. He was noted for his ability in mathmatics, and as an expert Bible student. He spent four years in the Civil War, serving under Grant and Sherman. He was in Sherman's march to the sea. He was wounded by a bullet through the jaw.

James Lair was an elder in the Blooming Grove Christian Church, four miles east of Palmyra Illinois. He often substituted for the pastor. He died in the soldier's home in Quincy, Illinois, about 1895. They lived in a log house of two rooms and a summer kitchen, with an attic over one room, which was entered by a ladder. There were eight children: Joe, Margaret, William, Isabelle, Sam, Benjamin Franklin, Sarah Jane, and Ann. (see chart A-12,13)

Samual Thomas Lair (Sam III) born march 9, 1851 in Carlinsville, Illinois, married November 22, 1877 in Carlinsville Illinois, Lydia Angelina Crays, daughter of John Crays and Mary Jane Todd. (John Crays was of dutch abstraction, born in Penn?, and Mary Jane Todd was German-Irish, born in Indiana) They were members of the Christian Church. They moved from MaCoufrin County, Illinois,abt. 1884, to Saline County, Nebraska. (Wilbur Neb.) In the spring of 1909 they moved with their family to Burdett, Washington County, Colorado, (So. of Sterling) where they took a homestead. Lydia died June 23, 1920, in Sterling, Colorado, and was buried in the Burdett Cemetery. Sam died March 18, 1945 at age 94, in Sterling Colorado, and was buried at Burdett Cemetery. Their children were: Ada, b. Oct. 26, 1878, Walter b. Feb. 3, 1882, Bernard b. Mar 19, 1892, Samuel b. July 27, 1899, Mable b. Sept. 11, 1886, Corolla b. Sept. 14, 1884, Maude b. Oct 24, 1894, Eva b. Sept 27, 1897, Bertha b. Jan 22, 1890 and four that died in infancy, one of which was named Hattie. (see chart A-6,7)

The name Brown is probably the Anglicized version of the German "brun", and may have referred to the color of hair or skin tones of the first family to possess the name. The name is often found in English and American history. Peter Brown, a Mayflower passenger, is considered to be the progenitor of the family in the colonies. Branches of this family were in due time settled in most of the colonies. We have no proof of any specific connection however.

James Brown, born in Maryland, married Miss Jane Congleton in Maryland. They moved to Bourbon Co., Ky., and came to Pike Co., Mo. in 1827, living the first winter near Frankfort, and then settling on Ramsey Creek. They were buried on the old Parson Brown farm. They had seven children. They were:

1. John - who lived in Indiana - once visited in Pike with son Jim.
2. William m. Ellen _____, 5 ch, a. Eunice m (1) Mr Mulberry, m (2) Mr Estes, b. Mary m Mr Ferrell, c. George - went to Oregon, d. Jim, e. Wm L. m. Elizabeth Schooler.
3. James m. Miss Sidwell, 2 ch.
4. Parson (B-8) m. Orpha Jane Boggess (B-9), 4 ch. (see next par.)
5. Joseph m. Miss Mountjoy, 5 ch, Jim, Margaret, Eunice, Sarah, Joseph Walton.
6. Samuel - Never married.
7. Eunice m. Mr. Owsley, no ch.

We visited the Orlando Brown House and the Liberty Hall in Frankfort Ky. in 1961. There may have been some connection between these families, but at that time we could find no proof. See Kentucky History.

Parson Brown, son of James Brown and Jane Congleton, was born Mar. 28, 1802 in Ky or Maryland, married Orpha Boggess, dau of William Boggess and Katie Waugh, on Oct. 21, 1830 in Pike Co. Mo.. He died Feb. 11, 1877. Orpha died Feb. 20, 1842. There four children were:

1. James Washington Brown, 2. Elizabeth K., 3. William, 4. Edwin.
- See descendants charts pages 11c and 11d.

The parents of Orpha Boggess who married Parson Brown were William Boggess and Katie Waugh.

Wm Boggess, b Dec 5, 1775 in Loudon Co. Va. m. (1) Elizabeth McVicar who died three months later. He later married Katie Waugh b. June 11, 1778 in Culpepper Co. Va. She went to Ky. in 1800 where she married William Boggess. They moved to Missouri. (Note discrepancy with Brown record) Their children were:

1. Bosman - m - Eliza Stark
2. Susan (Sukey) - m - Henry Schooler 3 ch. a. Catherine (Kilty) m James Stark, b. Elizabeth m. Will Brown, and c. William H. m. Miss Thurman m 2nd Miss Shy.
3. Naomi - m - Gooch (went to Linh Co.) Ch. Will, Mary, Henry, and Lizzie.
4. Orpha Jane - m - Parson Brown, 4 ch. (see page 11d)
5. Delilah - m - Wm. Goodman, 5 ch., a. Margaret m. Nels Tinsley, b. John m. Miss Finley, c. Willie m. Miss Robinson, d. Kate m. George Hogue, e. Allie m. John McIlroy.

James Washington Brown, son of Parson Brown and Orpha Jane Boggess, born Nov. 28, 1831 in Pike Co. Mo., on Mar. 7, 1855 married Margaret Stark dau. of James Hart Stark and Jane Watts.

James and Margaret Brown moved to Pettis County Missouri the following October, entered land near the head of Flat Creek, and lived there until his death in 1906. She died in Windsor Missouri, October 7, 1911. They were buried in the Latural Oak Cemetery. See page 11c for records of the seven children who lived to adulthood.

Richard Granger Brown (Chart B-2) and Lucretia S. Wilson (Chart B-3) were married December 25, 1901, in the Wilson home near Windsor, Mo.. Their first son, James Wilson Brown, lived but a few days. Shortly after their second son, Richard Ray, was born. This son died of polio when only eighteen years old, but before he left this world he had left a testimony for Jesus Christ. He was a youth leader at the Lingle Wyoming Church.

In 1905 Richard and Lucretia Brown left the family homestead in Windsor Missouri, to take a homestead in Wyoming. His sisters who taught school in Wyoming, and had homesteaded there, had advised them of the opportunity there. (See page 11c for references to Orpha, and Fanny Brown) Lucretia stayed with the Wilsons who had homesteaded at Ephrata, Washington, while Richard prepared a log house which was to be their temporary home in Wyoming, near what was then Wyncote, Wyoming. The homestead was about three miles south east of the old Fort Laramie, near the present town of Lingle, and the old Oregon Trail. When Lucretia rejoined her husband in the new home, she brought with her their first daughter, who was born in Ephrata.

The ranchers resented his farming what had been ranch land, and made considerable trouble. Later, when the dam was built, the property was irrigated, and became quite valuable. They worked to establish a church in the new town of Lingle, and to obtain schools in the area. They built a new home, which was acclaimed to be the "Most beautifully landscaped home in Goshen County".

Lucretia had developed Arthritis, which was aggravated by the Wyoming winters, so, late in 1935, they moved to Tuscon Arizona. By that time Mildred and Warren were the only ones at home. Parsie and his family went to Tuscon too. Later, Mary and her family, and Ella and her family, moved to Tuscon.

For the descendants of Richard Brown and Lucretia Wilson see pages 11b and 16a.

John Wilson, born in the North of Ireland, (His wife was a Miss Lavermore or Lavabee) emigrated to So. Carolina, and settled in the Abbeyville District close to "Ceeder" Creek Church in 1770 or 1775. There he raised a family. We have records of a George and John having come to what is now Illinois.

George Wilson, born May 2, 1782 (A cooper by trade) married Dec. 10, 1800, in Abbeyville Dist., So. Carolina; Susannah Anderson, sister of David, James, and John Anderson, and Widow of John Douglas. She was a lady of Irish descent, born in So. Carolina (One report gives Nova Scotia as birthplace).

In the Spring of 1806, George and Susanna Wilson with their family started in ox wagon and horseback for Northwest Territory. (That part is now Illinois) Susanna carried her months old baby, Jenot, and rode horseback. They stayed for a while at the home of her brother, David Anderson, who had preceded them. They moved for a time to the south side of Plumb Creek near Foster Spring. After about a year, they settled in St Clair County on the Okaw River, known as the Old Manvell Place, where they lived until the Indians went on war path and murdered part of a family, and carried off captives over on Mud Creek, N.E. of where Marissa now stands.

Susanna and the children fled to the fort, which they and others had built (abt one mile from east bank of Okaw, near line between townships 4--7 and 5--7), while George and other rangers went after the Indians. George Wilson was a ranger in the War of 1812-15. After the war they continued to live at the fort until abt. 1828, when they returned to the place he had earlier. (Sect 23, Township 4--7). He resided there until his death in 1857. Susanna or Susannah Wilson died in 1861. For additional information see "Illustrated Historical Atlas of Randolph County, Illinois" by Brink T. Co. of Illinois-- 1875, under Irish settlement, page 19. This shows that George and Susannah Wilson were among the first settlers, Her bro. David is shown as a Colonel.

The children of George Wilson b.5,2,1782 and Susanna Anderson b. 5,7, 1779 were:

1. John A. Wilson b. Nov. 30, 1802, d. June 6, 1804

This story was told by Mary White, who married Andrew W. Wilson son of James Wilson and Jennie S. McBride, about her mother, Anna (Wilbanks) White, and her father, Macklin White. She stated that her mother lived on a large So. Carolina Plantation. Anna Wilbanks father objected to her marriage to Macklin White who was not wealthy like himself, and locked her in her room to keep her from meeting Macklin White. Her negro "Mammy" carried messages to Macklin, and unlocked the door to allow her to elope. Her father came after her, but arrived just as the minister had pronounced them man and wife. He disowned her, but after Macklin White died, during the Civil War, they were reconciled. She later married a Mr. Eaton. They had a dau. Maggie (perhaps Margaret) who married a Nixon. Their children: Florence Nixon m Virgil Feemaster; and Adriana Nixon m Ashton (1 dau. Betty Ashton). The children of Macklin White and Anna Wilbanks, and of James Wilson and Jennie S. McBride are listed on page 11e.

Andrew Worth Wilson (code B-6) b. 1,24,1848 at Baldwin Ill., and son of James Wilson (code B-12) and Jennie S. McBride (code B-13), married 3,9,1871 Mary Macklin White (code B-7). For a while they owned a (SPARTA) hotel on the Illinois side of the Mississippi river. They later moved Lincoln Missouri, and then to nearby Windsor (about 1888) to be nearer to schools. They took a homestead at Ephrata Washington about 1904, where they lived the remainder of their life. He died Oct. 1925, and she died in Dec. 1931.

For the descendants of Andrew Worth Wilson and Mary Macklin White see pages 11b, 11c, and 17.

In 1480 a young man, John Muirhead, body guard of King James III of Scotland, and second son of the then Laird of Lachop, descended from a Prince Muirhead of Germany; while the King and he were hunting, seeing the King in hazard of his life from attack of an angry bull under three great oaks, sprang and caught the bull by the horns and all but broke his neck. For his bravery in saving the King's life he was given a new name "Stark" meaning "strength" - won a coat of arms and a motto -- Fortiorum fortia facta. He was given an estate "Killermount on Clyde by Glasgow, Scotland".

In Connecticut in 1666, Aaron Stark took the freeman's oath at Stonington and at New London in 1669.

John Stark, born in Scotland about 1665, and grandson of the Bishop of Glasgow, also a Stark and a "zealous Covenanter"; was the first Stark to depart from the custom of naming his oldest son John, by naming his oldest son after his mother, Archibald. In 1710 he was a merchant of Glasgow, and immigrated to Londonderry New Hampshire, His son James, b. 1695 came with him.

The oldest son, Archibald, stayed in Scotland, later marrying Eleanor Nichols of Londonderry, Ireland. They joined his father in New Hampshire. He is the father of General John Stark of Bunker Hill fame (General Stark's wife was Elizabeth Page, called "Molly" (The Children of John Stark (b. abt. 1665, Scotland) who came to New Hampshire in 1710 are: Archibald, b. 1693, James b. 1695, John, b. 1697, Richard b. 1699, Louise b. 1701, Daniel b. 1703, Samuel b. 1705, Susanna b. 1707, Silas b. 1709.)

James Stark, b. 1695 in Scotland, married 1716 in Londonderry, New Hampshire, Miss Elizabeth Thornton, a Welsh girl, sister of Dr. Matthew Thornton who, when an old man signed the Declaration of Independence. (For the Thornton lineage, see charts L and M.) (The Welsh may have been from her mother's side, since other records show Matthew Thornton to have been born in Ireland, and of English Royal Descent.) In 1730 James and Elizabeth Stark, with their eight children, moved to Stafford, Stafford County, Virginia, where seven more children were born.

The children of James Stark and Elizabeth Thornton Stark were.

1. John, b. 1717,      2. James, b. 1719,      3. Thomas, b. 1720,
4. Jeremiah, b. 1722 m. Tabitha Carter Lowry m. 2nd. Elizabeth Green,      5. William, b. 1725,      6. Mary, b. 1727,      7. Susanna b. 1729,      8. Elizabeth, b. 1730, (The above were born in N. H., the following in Stafford Co. Va.):
9. Sarah, b. 8-23-1731,      10. Jane, b. 2-8-1733,      11. Ann, b. 2-9-1736,      12. Benjamin, b. 8-27-1738,      13. Donald, b. 5-30-1744,      14. Isabella, b. 1-25-1746,      15. Lidia, b. 6-30-1748.

John Stark, son of James and Elizabeth (Thornton) Stark, born 1717 in Londonderry N.H., moved with his father and family to Stafford Co. Va. in 1730. He practiced law during the week and preached on Sunday. He married Miss Hanson Porter 1-1-1746 in Culpepper County, Virginia. Her family is noted for its many brave sea captins and distinguished naval officers. They had one son, William, and three daughters. She died 4-11-1755 in Stafford County, Virginia.

John Stark's second wife was Hanna Eaves, a beautiful English governess who gave lessons to his family. They were married 5-29-1756 in Culpepper Co. Va. They had five sons and two daughters. He was a man of great courage and conviction, wealthy and influential. Once when captured by indians, he was condemned to run the Indian gauntlet which consisted of two long rows of warriors armed with Indian clubs. He made a cat-like spring, snatched the club from the nearest brave, struck right and left, sending young warriors sprawling in the dust. For this act of bravery, he was given his freedom. He was a Colonel in the French and Indian War, a cousin of General John Stark of Revolutionary War fame. (We were told that his home was next door to the home of Thomas Washington, father of George Washington. In 1961 we stopped at George Washington's Boyhood Home just across the Rappahannock from Fredericksburg Va.. Although we did not find the Stark home, we found that a Doctor and his wife lived there. She was of Thornton descent. They allowed us to look at the Washington records. We found that George Washington was descended from Ralph de Neville, a common ancestor of the Thorntons. Queen Elizabeth is also descended from Ralph de Neville.)

They were greatly put out at having a boy on their hands at such a time, but after consultation, gave him a place in the ranks. So well did he conduct himself that he came out Capt. James Stark at the Great British Tea Party in Boston, 12-16-1773. He was with Gen. Stark at the Battle of Bennington, 8-16-1777.

The Sherrills that we know are of the families of Sherrill, Asper, Moore, Montgomery, Martin, Sandidge, Roach, Gill, and Hurt. The Sherrill Family, for several generations, lived in Kentucky, as did the Aspers and the Moores.

Archibald Taylor Sherrill b. 1,14,1848 in Taylor Co. Ky. married Sallie Ann Asper dau of Stephen Asper and America Wood Sandidge of Louisville Ky.

Hershel Taylor Sherrill, son of Archibald and Sallie Sherrill, was born Sept. 2, 1884 in Gradyville Ky. In 1905 he homesteaded a place at Elida, New Mexico. In 1907 he went to Quanah, Texas, to care for his brother J. Logan Sherrill. He then returned to Gradyville Kentucky, where Jan. 6, 1909 he married Eulora Vene Moore, dau. of James Harrison Moore and Clarissa Arebelle Montgomery. They then moved to McGregor Texas, and Moody Texas. They returned to Gradyville, Ky. in 1912, where he worked in a General Store until he purchased a grain mill. In 1920 they moved to Odell, Texas, where they owned a furniture store until it burned sometime in the 1930s. They then moved to Jacksboro Texas. In recent years they lived at Windom Texas. Eulora, who for many years had set a Christian Example for her children and those about her, became hospitalized due to a stroke. On Nov. 12, 1962, at Bonham Texas, she left this world. From 1961 Rodeo Annual

Freckles Brown (WARREN) $10,924

When he draws small cattle, he can bulldog with the best.

Ever since he rode fifty miles on a bronc from the Sunlight Ranch to Cody in '41, he's been placing with the best there is entered. This year's IBM sheet looks like a balance sheet from General Motors, you never saw so many figures.

Splitting the second go-round, placing three more times and being fourth in the average, added $870 Finals money to his year's winnings.

Freckles has become the kind of cowboy it's hard to write about; much of it's been said before. Freckles' first rodeo was at Wilcox, Ariz., in '37 when he was 16. Now 39 he's been a long ways since. He was in the service during the war, made four parachute jumps with the OSS in China and — typical of him — found time to win at an impromptu rodeo, Kunming, China where they used Army mules and native steers. Wouldn't you know! he placed in both, and won the '45 Chinese All Around?

He became World Champion in 1962

Over the River.

WRITTEN IN MEMORY OF NELLIE FEE.

Over the river they beckon home,
 Loved ones who've crossed to the far
 other side;
 The gleaming of their snowy robes I see
 But their voices are lost in the dashing tide;
 There's one with hair of sunny gold,
 And eyes the reflection of heaven's own blue.
 He crossed in the twilight grey and cold,
 And the pale mist hid him from mortal view.
 We saw not the angles who met him there,
 The gates of the city we could not see
 Over the river—over the river—
 The loved one stands waiting for me.

He crossed on his bosom his lovely hands
 And fearlessly entered the phantom bark;
 We felt it glide from the silver sands,
 And all our sunshine grew strangely
 dark;
 We know he is safe on the farther side,
 Where all the ransomed and angelic be;
 Over the river—over the river—
 The loved one is waiting for me.
 For none returns from those quiet shores,
 Who cross with the boatman cold and
 pale,
 We hear the dip of the golden oars,
 And catch a gleam of the snowy sail.
 And hark! they have passed from our yearning hearts,
 Who cross the stream and are gone for aye,
 We may not sunder the veil apart,
 That hides from our vision the gates of day;
 We only know that their barges no more
 May sail with us o'er life's stormy sea;
 Yet some where, I know, on the unseen
 shore,
 They watch, and beckon, and wait for me.

And I sit and think when the sunset's
 gold,
 Is flushing river and hill and shore,
 I shall one day stand by the oar,
 And list for the sound of the boatman's
 oar;
 I shall watch for a gleam of the flapping sail,
 I shall hear the boat as it gains the strand,
 I shall pass from sight with the boatman
 pale,
 To the better shore of the spirit land:
 I shall know the loved who have gone before,
 And joyfully sweet will the meeting
 be,
 When o'er the river—the beautiful river
 The angel of death shall carry me.
 A FRIEND.

We miss her, Oh we miss her,
 Dear mother, the joy at our home,
 But we will wait with patience
 Till our Saviour bids us come.

Though it was hard to part with her,
 Still we can only think,
 It was for the best he took her,
 Safe o'er the roiling river break.

May it lead our minds to heaven,
 May it lift our souls on high,
 And we will prepare to meet her
 In her far off home—on the sky.

DIED.—Billie Otis Fee, oldest son of Rev.
 T. J. Fee, at the residence of J. L.
 Joyce, near Woodruff, Kansas, Aug.
 22, 1889, after a painful illness of four days. Aged 21 years, 1 month.

The deceased was born in Linn county, Iowa, July 22, 1868, making him twenty-one years old at time of his death. Mr.
 Fee united with the Evangelical church at the age of fourteen, and has since been an active member, loved and respected by all who knew him. He was ready to go at his Master's bidding, and to meet his mother who is waiting to welcome him on the golden shore.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Pettit of Alma, to a large concourse of sympathetic friends and relatives, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Woodruff cemetery.

A precious one from us has gone,
 A voice we loved is stilled,
 A place is vacant in our midst,
 That never can be filled.
 This loving one has journeyed home,
 His battles are all o'er;
 Although we sadly miss him here,
 He's only gone before.
 He's journeyed to that happy land,
 Where all are free from pain,
 And if we follow Jesus' steps
 We'll meet with him again.
 God in His wisdom has recalled
 The boon His love had given,
 And though his body moulders here,
 His spirit rests in heaven.

BARNES.—Nellie Jane Barnes, daughter of T. J. and Micah Fee, was born, Oct.
 2, 1870, at Center Point, Iowa, and died at her home in Woodruff, Kansas, Jan. 7, 1903, of typhoid fever. Her age was 32 y., 3 m. and 5 d. She gave her heart to God and joined our Church in her 13th year, and was a faithful and beloved member until her death. On the 25th of December, 1887, she was wedded to E. H.
 Barnes of Woodruff, Kansas, whom she leaves with 6 children. Her father, stepmother, 3 brothers, 5 sisters, and 1 step-brother, besides a large number of other relatives and friends also mourn her death.
 Her mother, 2 brothers, 1 sister and 1
 step-sister preceded her. The funeral service was conducted by the undersigned, assisted by Rev. B. F. Rogers of the M. E. Church. E. H. Kruse.

In Memoriam.

WRITTEN IN MEMORY OF MICHA FEE, BY HER NIECE, IDA JOYCE, OF LEWISBURG, NEBRASKA.

She has gone from us for ever,
 She has gone from this world of care,
 Though we will see her here never—
 We hope to meet her there.

She went home to her Savior,
 To that bright, bright world above,
 Where with the angels she is singing
 Around the throne of love.

She has passed from this world to another,
 That world so bright and fair,
 Where there never was any sorrow,
 Trouble, death, sickness or care.

She has gone to be with the angels
 And the loved ones gone before,
 Oh, there is where we hope to meet her,
 On that beautiful, golden shore.

TO THE LAND OF REST.

Mrs. Jane Fee, an old and much respected citizen of this vicinity, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. P.
 Newman, near Toddville, on Monday evening, June 17, at about 6 o'clock.

Her husband, Thomas Fee, died some 15 years ago, since which time she has been making her home among the children. Mrs. Fee was born in North Carolina, July 25, 1813, and came with her husband to Center Point in 1849. She was the mother of thirteen children, five of whom survive her. During the life of her husband they were identified with the Baptist church, but of late years she was not a member of any organization, though she seemed to lean toward the Evangelical, and put her faith in that church.
 She was known as a noble, kind-hearted woman, and had hosts of friends in this community. The funeral took place from the residence of her daughter on Wednesday, the services being conducted by Elder T. D. Newman. Interment was in the Center Point cemetery, a large number of friends following the remains to the final resting place in that silent city of the dead.

THOMAS JOEL FEE was born in Crawford Co., Ind., April 16, 1847, and died at the home of his daughter in Woodruff, Kans., Dec. 31, 1919, aged 72 years, 8 months and 15 days. He was married to Micah Joyce Oct. 3, 1867. To this union were born 8 children. The mother died in July, 1885, leaving him to care for the children. He afterward married Mrs. Mary Franko of Center Point, Iowa. To them were born 5 children. His companion passed away last January, also 7 of the children having preceded him. He was converted at the age of 30 and later on he felt the call to preach and preached locally in Iowa for about 6 years, he was also classleader and exhorter for a number of years. He came to Phillips Co. in 1886, and soon after his arrival near Woodruff he held a revival meeting in the old sod school house south of town, and the organization of this church was the result of this meeting. Bro. T. J. Fee was the first appointed minister of this church. Bro.
 Fee was a hard worker along spiritual lines and very devoted to the cause of the church. He is survived by 8 children, 23 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, 2 sisters, 1 brother and many other relatives and friends. The funeral was conducted by the undersigned and the Presiding Elder, C.
 Jannen. W. P. BANCROFT.

The End—The Beginning.

When the end of this transitory life comes to our friends, no matter how protracted it may have been, the only consolation that can in any measure heal the deep wound thus inflicted is on our hearts, is a realization of God's merciful revelation that where temporal life ends, eternal life begins, and we can follow, by faith, the departed ones, down through the dark valley and shadow—the night of death, into the glorious light of immortality—can see the trials, the vicissitudes, the sad mingling of joy and sorrow, of pain and anguish, merging into the glorious beatitudes of endless felicity; the blotting out of all the ills incident to mortals here below, and finding that rest of soul promised to the wearer of His yoke, the bearer of His burden.

These blessed assurances palliate the deep gloom that settles down over us when a loved one departs, but cannot remove our sorrow. God never intended that we should not sorrow. He wants us to remember our loved ones gone before and feel deeply the admonitions of the vacant seat, the silent voice, the wonted step and sweet counsel of our departed.

After lingering long and suffering much, our friend and brother, James W. Brown, lay down his armor and calmly, without a struggle, fell asleep August 30, 1906, and his spirit took its flight back to God who gave it. Thus the walk in the great Light, the inestimable gift of God to man as a rule and guide to his faith and practice, terminated in an entrance into the greater Light reflected from the Supreme Architect of the Universe, that Light that supersedes the sun and illuminates the Heavenly Land.

J. W. Brown was born in Pike county, Missouri, Nov. 28, 1831; was married to Miss Margaret Stark, March 7, 1855.

This youthful couple came to Pettis county and settled on the farm where he died, in October, 1855, occupying the same place for fifty-one years. To this union were born nine children, two of whom died in childhood, the other seven—Mrs. T. W. Stanley of Saratoga, Wyo.; Mrs. W. M. Humphrey, Miles City, Mont.; Mrs. D. H. Laney, Ekalaka, Mont.; Miss Orpha J. Brown, Brannenburgh, Mont.; R. G. Brown, Wyncote, Wyoming; Miss Fannie C. Brown, Pettis county, Mo.; and P. S. Brown, Walsenburg, Colo. These, together with the disconsolate widow, are left to mourn their loss. Three, viz. Mrs. Stanley, P. S. Brown and Miss Fannie Brown, were present at the bedside of their dying father, his loving companion and faithful brother, who came to him in his first severe illness and for more than a year rendered all the assistance that a true brother could give, even down to the closing scene, these also stood around the bedside as life ebbed and the tide flowed out into eternity.

What a blessed consolation it is, in the trials of life, to feel that our conduct has been such as to call true friends, faithful friends, loving hearts around us when our little craft is being launched out into the boundless unknown.

When J. W. Brown came to this country with the companion of his youth, in 1855, he purchased a claim from old Bro. Hines, of sacred memory to the early settlers of Belmont (now Windsor), on which this good old man had built what the people of the west call a "shack," where this young couple did their first housekeeping. He built a better habitation later, on the site where the present beautiful homestead now stands; indeed, one room of the old is the dining room of the new. Here their children were born, educated and trained to lives of usefulness and respectability, to which their clothing testifies. No greater encomium can be pronounced upon parents, than the rearing of a respectable family.

Soon after his settlement he put in his membership in the Masonic Lodge of Windsor and in a short time manifested an ability which pointed him out as good material for Master, to which position he was elected as soon as eligibility would allow. He served in this capacity for about ten years, receiving and imparting instruction in the grand lessons of the order; making impressions upon the membership which became a prominent factor in the influence now exerted by this brilliant Lodge. He and his daughter rendered assistance in the O. E. S., which entitles them to the undying esteem of the Chapter. Thus the name of J. W. Brown will ever be revered by all true Masons who knew him.

He joined the Christian church in Windsor in 1876 and held that membership still at the time of his death, and from a conversation with him twenty-four hours before his demise, I learned that his trust and well-founded faith were still the basis of that hope and confidence which surely would lead him without tear into the presence of the Great I Am.

His settlement in the early history of the county gave him opportunity of forming the acquaintance of the entire country. Settlers ten miles away were called neighbors. His friendly disposition and good information made him a leader both socially and politically and, though those who first settled there had all passed away, his influence was felt and his advice sought by the entire community who grew up around him. So that a deep feeling was manifested in the attendance at his funeral and in the long procession that followed his remains to their final resting place—Laurel Oak cemetery.

He was probably the first acquaintance formed by the writer on coming to Missouri in 1858, and an intimacy sprung up which never subsided till the veil was drawn which separates the Glory Land from our's.

The funeral services were held at the homestead at 1:30 p. m., the 31st; sermon, by Bro. Fite, appropriate, consolating and impressive.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved widow, the surviving children, his brother William—the last of that branch of Browns—and to all the relatives; and we feel that all his large circle of friends will join with us in this expression.

Farewell, dear brother. God bless the bereaved.

W. T. SHIVER.

Mrs. Margaret Brown.

Margaret Stark was born Feb. 1, 1836. She passed away Oct. 7, 1911, having lived 75 years and eight months in this earth life.

She was united in marriage early in her 20th year to James Brown. To this union were born nine children, two passing away in infancy, seven surviving her. They were all present at their mother's funeral with the exception of Margaret, who lives in Odessa, Washington.

Mrs. Brown united with the Christian church 35 years ago in a meeting conducted by Rev. Berry, who was here on a visit from Kentucky. James Brown and his young wife were among the pioneers of Pettis county, they having lived on the same farm for more than fifty years.

Mrs. Brown was universally loved in her neighborhood, friend to all, many of whom still living speak of her as the best friend, neighbor, and woman they ever knew. Her whole life was consistently Christian and for children, relatives, and friends, when she left to mourn for her, we find happy consolation in the knowledge that her passing from this life will be but a transition to the happier life beyond the river, where she has joined her husband and found rest with Him whom she loved.

FROM LA RETINA, ROLÉ COLUMN

A.B., V.W.: NEVILLE genealogy goes back to Gilbert de Nevil or Neuville, a companion-at-arms of William the Conqueror in the Norman French subjugation of Britain in 1066. De Nevil represented the family's home town in Normandy, called Neuville, meaning "new town." Gilbert de Nevil was granted estates in Lincolnshire, England, in the 11th century. Some of his descendants migrated to Durham, north England, where Ranulph de Nevill was summoned to Parliament in 1294. The surname was augmented to Neville in the 1400s. The Nevilles became Earls of Westmoreland in 1397. Their coat-of-arms has a silver St. Andrew's cross on a red shield. William Neville was recorded at Ipswich, Mass., in 1643.

R.T., W.T.: THORNTON is from the old English town of Thornton in Yorkshire. The source "thorn-tun" referred to an estate overgrown with horn-trees and brush. Hugh and Richard Thornteton were Yorkshiremen in the late 1300s. This family owned Whitton Castle, Northumberland, for centuries. They distinguished themselves for bravery in the 15th century Wars of the Roses. The Thornton shield is black, crossed by a silver chevron. Matthew Thornton, a signer of our Declaration of Independence, and his son James, both of Pelham, Mass., served in the Revolutionary War.

JUDGE JAMES STARK

BY
HON. CHAMP CLARK

It has been said that immigration moves on parallels of latitude. This was more literally true prior to railroading than now.

The rule was never more clearly illustrated than in the early settlement of Missouri.

Virginians settled Kentucky; North Carolinians settled Tennessee; Virginians, Kentuckians, North Carolinians and Tennesseans settled Missouri; and Missourians have settled the west, even to the shores of the Pacific.

A close examination will show that the Virginians and Kentuckians mostly located in the northern portion of Missouri, while the North Carolinians and Tennesseans for the most part pitched their tents in the southern portion.

It is safe to say that until the great immigration into Missouri at the close of the Civil War, two-thirds of all Missourians were natives of Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee or their lineal descendants and they were the flowers of their respective flocks. Mingled with these was the elite of all other states and countries.

The Missouri pioneers were extraordinary people—the salt of the earth—courageous, hardy, intelligent, honest, industrious, honorable, patriotic and God-fearing. A more independent and self-reliant set of men and women never trod the earth. They laid broad and deep the foundations of a splendid civilization. They crossed the great river with a Bible in one hand and a rifle in the other. The first three things they did in every place they settled were: To build homes, school-houses and churches; court houses and jails came later. In fact, there was not much need for these latter; for as a rule, the Missouri pioneers were a law-abiding folk, too high-minded to commit crime, too lousy to indulge in litigation.

Generally they brought with them, property ample to begin life with and upon the fertile soil of Missouri they soon were well to do, many of them wealthy for their day and generation.

When Fort Sumter was fired on, Missourians on the average lived better than any other people on earth. They kept open house, a habit inherited from their ancestors and transmitted to their posterity. Strangers have ever been welcome within their gates.

Missouri pioneers were a prolific race, large families of handsome sons and beautiful daughters were their pride. Among them, President Roosevelt's homilies against race-suicide would have been superfluous and would have been laughed to scorn by the men and women who conquered this rich wilderness and made it the most delectable place for human habitation beneath the stars. They cheerfully and enthusiastically obeyed the injunction; "Be fruitful, and multiply."

Their descendants were not weaklings, for the census shows that they are on the average the finest specimens of manhood and womanhood betwixt the two oceans.

Most of the Virginians, Kentuckians, North Carolinians and Tennesseans who settled Missouri were soldiers or sons of soldiers.

Among these was Judge James Stark of Bourbon Co., Kentucky, who served under Gen. William Henry Harrison at Tippecanoe and under Col. Richard M. Johnson—"Old Dick," as he was popularly called, at the battle of the River Thames. He was present when Tecumseh was killed by a private who loaded his gun with a peculiar kind of slug. Tecumseh was not killed by an officer as some historians relate.

He came in the prime of his manhood from Bourbon, one of the finest counties in Kentucky, to Pike, one of the richest in Missouri, reared a family which is still numerous and powerful and laid the foundation for the largest nursery in the world—now conducted by the third and fourth generations of his descendants.

We sometimes build more wisely than we know. He little dreamed while riding horseback from the far-famed Kentucky Blue Grass region to the richer Missouri Blue Grass region, carrying in his old fashioned saddle-bags the seeds with which to start a nursery on the sunset side of the Mississippi that he was beginning a business which would render the name Stark honorably familiar not only throughout America, but beyond, and that ninety years after he planted his trees, his grand-children and great grand-children would be shipping trees beyond the seas; but then such is the truth of history.

It's really a pity that he cannot return to earth long enough to witness the magnitude of the business which he started in 1825. He would be amazed as well as delighted. Verily his works do follow him.

From "National Nurseryman."

Captain W. Livingston Stark was born March 10, 1834, at the old Stark homestead in Pike county, Missouri. He died Oct. 11, 1914, in the 80th year of his age.

The funeral was held at the family residence at 10:30 on Tuesday morning and was conducted by Rev. G. L. Bush of Carrollton, Mo., who paid a beautiful tribute to the long, active, helpful life of the deceased, with his friends, with his neighbors, in his home and in business and social affairs. He also gave a touching tribute to the memory of the daughter Mrs. Chrissie Stark Kilpatrick, and the change that the shock of her death had wrought upon the deceased.

Captain Stark was the last of a family of seventeen children of Judge James and Jane Watts Stark of Pike county, Missouri. He grew to manhood on his father's farm, getting what education could be obtained from the schools in those pioneer times.

He was united in marriage with Miss Martha Whittedge Oct. 23, 1856. The next year they came to Pettis county, Missouri, where they settled on the government land patents granted his father for military services in the war of 1812. On this prairie farm as far as eye could see in every direction, blue stem grew as high as a man's head. The Indians were gone but wild game was found in countless numbers. The lumber to build a house was brought by wagon from Boonville, a distance of eighty miles.

It was noted that Hebrew means son of Heber, Isaacson became Saacson and then Saxon. The Hebrew word Leag when reversed is, as it would be, Gael. Note that the following words are related: Galatia, Gaul, Gael-ic or Gaelic, Angael for one gael, Angaelish (one gael man), Englishman.

While there is no proven connection, consider the following: Israel, Israelian, Isran, Iran; or Israel, Isrian, Aryan. There is a proven connection between Iran and Aryan.
